

SUE COE

print retrospective
JAN 26 - MAR 6, 2019

The Lore Degenstein Gallery, Susquehanna University
Charles B. Degenstein Campus Center, Selinsgrove, PA 17870

You are cordially invited to an exhibition

SUE COE: PRINT RETROSPECTIVE
January 26 through March 6, 2019

Sue Coe is a contemporary English artist noted for her intensely political graphic illustrations and activism. Born in 1951 in Staffordshire, England, she grew up near a slaughterhouse, which helped instill a lifelong passion for animal rights activism. This political sensibility characterizes Coe's work, which often explicitly makes animal rights and other social issues its central subject. The artist uses painting, printmaking and a realistic drawing style to depict cruelty against animals, sweatshops, prisons, AIDS, war and anti-capitalism throughout her work.

Opening reception in the gallery: January 26, 7-9 p.m.

Gallery hours: 11-5 p.m. daily, closed during university recesses. Call for an appointment when classes are not in session. For more information, call 570-372-4059 or go to www.susqu.edu/about-su/art-gallery.

The exhibition is free and open to the public.
This facility is wheelchair-accessible.

Card front details: Sue Coe, Abolition

Exhibition organized by Galerie St. Etienne